Confronting the evils of Egyptian bondage would be neither quick nor easy - it would be a difficult struggle that would test the strength and courage of Moses and the people of Israel.

God’s mission of life looks like this: during a global pandemic, homebound members are called, prayers are gathered, food is collected for local pantries, worship services are streamed, groceries are delivered to the vulnerable, offerings are given to the glory of God; during times of injustice, voices of the oppressed are lifted up and listened to with respect, oppressors recognize their complicity and repent from wrong doing, and all come together to work for a more just world. God’s mission of life is happening all around and through each of us.

♪♪ Amazing Grace - My Chains Are Gone
(J. Newton, C. Tomlin, L. Giglio)

*Amazing grace, how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me.
I once was lost but now am found,
was blind but now I see.*

*Tw'as grace that taught my heart to fear,
and grace my fears relieved.
How precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed.*

*My chains are gone, I've been set free.
My God, my Savior has ransomed me.
And like a flood, His mercy rains
unending love, amazing grace.*

*The Lord has promised good to me,
His word my hope secures.
He will my shield and portion be
as long as life endures.*

*My chains are gone, I've been set free.
My God, my Savior has ransomed me.
And like a flood, His mercy rains
unending love, amazing grace.*

*The earth shall soon dissolve like snow,
the sun forbear to shine.
But God, who called me here below,
will be forever mine.
My chains are gone, I've been set free.*

*My God, my Savior has ransomed me.

WELCOME

Intern Dalton

ID: Good morning, welcome to Trinity Kenosha, a Reconciling in Christ congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

In 2016, Trinity voted to become an RIC congregation after acknowledging that the greater church has condemned and excluded people because of race, culture, age, gender, economic status, disability or sexual orientation. In response, we decided that living faithfully means affirming that every person is made in the image of God. We welcome all into the full life and ministry of the church. We are committed to working towards openness and understanding, justice, healing and wholeness. Our commitment to being an RIC congregation means that we not only acknowledge our own ways of condemning and excluding peoples but also work toward truly welcoming all so that there might be justice and wholeness in the world-beginning here in Kenosha! With this call to wholeness and racial justice in mind, today we conclude our three-week sermon series titled, “Made in the Image of God,” that explores Israel’s time in Egypt and issues of racism.

Welcome to worship!

We gather in the name of God the Creator, God the Redeemer, and God the Sanctifier. Amen.

A LITANY ADAPTATION OF “LIFT EVERY VOICE AND SING”

From the ELCA Juneteenth Worship Resource

PT: Celebration rises, up from the deep places, finding voice in the light and air no longer denied.

ID: Lift every voice and sing, sing till earth and heaven ring, ring with the harmonies of liberty.

PT: Celebration rises, not blind to the suffering, not blind to the sorrow. Celebration comes at a cost.

ID: Stony the road we trod, bitter the chastening rod, felt in the days when hope unborn had died; yet with a steady beat have not our weary feet come to the place for which our parents sighed.

PT: Celebration rises, remembering the way we have come, the paths taken that have brought us here now to this place and time of celebration. Celebration rises, up and up, full of remembering. Remembering the ones led to freedom by Harriet; Remembering lives and freedom stolen: George Floyd, Breonna Taylor, Atatianna Jefferson, Aura Rosser, Trayvon Martin, Michelle Brown and many others.

ID: We have come over a way that with tears has been watered; we have come treading our path through the blood of the slaughtered, out from the gloomy past till now we stand at last where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

PT: Celebration rises, recognizing what has been done and left undone, knowing there is still and yet much to do, so much further to go. Celebration rises, naming the victories, recognizing the challenges yet ahead. Celebration rises on voices offering unfinished praise.

ID: Lest our feet stray from the places, our God where we met thee; lest our hearts drunk with the wine of the world we forget thee;

PT: Celebration rises, resisting illusions, to be embraced by the real and abiding presence of God who breaks our chains, and sets us free for freedom, in power and love and joy.

ID: God of our weary years, God of our silent tears, thou who hast brought us thus far on our way; thou who has by thy might led us into the light, keep us forever in the past, we pray.

PT: Celebration rises, with the power of healing wings and promise to endure. Celebration rises, celebrating that by God's grace, I am because You are, You are because I am; Celebrating that the fullness of my humanity does not diminish yours and the fullness of your humanity does not diminish mine.

ID: Shadowed beneath thy hand may we forever stand, true to our God, true to our native land. True to who we are, True to who we have been and who we are becoming, thanks be to God.

A PRAYER FOR RACIAL JUSTICE

ID: Let us pray. Save us, O God, from ourselves, from racism often cloaked in pious words,
from machinations of white supremacy hidden in calls for civility,
from micro aggressions thinly veiled in arrogance,
from apologies when they don't give way to action,
from forgiveness without confessing the truth,
from reconciliation without reparation.

Deliver us, O God, from expecting siblings of color to bear this emotional work, which is not theirs to do.

We're thankful for the long arc of history that bends toward justice. By the power of the Holy Spirit, grant us wisdom and give us courage for the facing of these days for the sake of the kin-dom that we share in Christ Jesus. C: Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

PT: Let us pray together the Prayer of the Day. O God of all people,

C: ...you heard the groaning of Israel in Egypt, you promised them freedom from oppression, and delivered them. Hear the groaning of the oppressed today and deliver them, and reveal to oppressors what they have done so that they might repent and all might live out love for neighbor; through Jesus Christ our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

PT: Through the proclaimed word of God, the Holy Spirit moves to instill and deepen faith.

A reading from the gospel of Mark.

Mark 12:29-31

<sup>29</sup> Jesus answered, “The first is, ‘Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is one; <sup>30</sup> you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.’ <sup>31</sup> The second is this, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no other commandment greater than these.”

PT: The Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

PT: A reading from the book of Exodus.

Exodus 5:1-6:8

<sup>5</sup> Afterward Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said, “Thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, ‘Let my people go, so that they may celebrate a festival to me in the wilderness.’” <sup>2</sup> But Pharaoh said, “Who is the Lord, that I should heed him and let Israel go? I do not know the Lord, and I will not let Israel go.” <sup>3</sup> Then they said, “The God of the Hebrews has revealed himself to us; let us go a three days' journey into the wilderness to sacrifice to the Lord our God, or he will fall upon us with pestilence or sword.”<sup>4</sup> But the king of Egypt said to them, “Moses and Aaron, why are you taking the people away from their work? Get to your labors!”<sup>5</sup> Pharaoh continued, “Now they are more numerous than the people of the land and yet you want them to stop working!”<sup>6</sup> That same day Pharaoh commanded the taskmasters of the people, as well as their supervisors,<sup>7</sup> “You shall no longer give the people straw to make bricks, as before; let them go and gather straw for themselves.”<sup>8</sup> But you shall require of them the same quantity of bricks as they have made previously; do not diminish it, for they are lazy; that is why they cry, ‘Let us go and offer sacrifice to our God.’<sup>9</sup> Let heavier work be laid on them; then they will labor at it and pay no attention to deceptive words.”

<sup>10</sup> So the taskmasters and the supervisors of the people went out and said to the people, “Thus says Pharaoh, ‘I will not give you straw.’<sup>11</sup> Go and get straw yourselves, wherever you can find it; but your work will not be lessened in the least.”<sup>12</sup> So the people scattered throughout the land of Egypt, to gather stubble for straw.<sup>13</sup> The taskmasters were urgent, saying, “Complete your work, the same daily assignment as when you were given straw.”<sup>14</sup> And the supervisors of the Israelites, whom Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, and were asked, “Why did you not finish the required quantity of bricks yesterday and today, as you did before?”

<sup>15</sup> Then the Israelite supervisors came to Pharaoh and cried, “Why do you treat your servants like this?<sup>16</sup> No straw is given to your servants, yet they say to us, ‘Make bricks!’ Look how your servants are beaten! You are unjust to your own people.”<sup>17</sup> He said, “You are lazy, lazy; that is why you say, ‘Let us go and sacrifice to the Lord.’<sup>18</sup> Go now, and work; for no straw shall be given you, but you shall still deliver the same number of bricks.”<sup>19</sup> The Israelite supervisors saw that they were in trouble when they were told, “You shall not lessen your daily number of bricks.”<sup>20</sup> As they left Pharaoh, they came upon Moses and Aaron who were waiting to meet them.<sup>21</sup> They said to them, “The Lord look upon you and judge!

You have brought us into bad odor with Pharaoh and his officials, and have put a sword in their hand to kill us.”

<sup>22</sup> Then Moses turned again to the Lord and said, “O Lord, why have you mistreated this people? Why did you ever send me? <sup>23</sup> Since I first came to Pharaoh to speak in your name, he has mistreated this people, and you have done nothing at all to deliver your people.”

<sup>6</sup> Then the Lord said to Moses, “Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh: Indeed, by a mighty hand he will let them go; by a mighty hand he will drive them out of his land.”

<sup>2</sup> God also spoke to Moses and said to him: “I am the Lord. <sup>3</sup> I appeared to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob as God Almighty, but by my name ‘The Lord’ I did not make myself known to them. <sup>4</sup> I also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land in which they resided as aliens. <sup>5</sup> I have also heard the groaning of the Israelites whom the Egyptians are holding as slaves, and I have remembered my covenant. <sup>6</sup> Say therefore to the Israelites, ‘I am the Lord, and I will free you from the burdens of the Egyptians and deliver you from slavery to them. I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with mighty acts of judgment. <sup>7</sup> I will take you as my people, and I will be your God. You shall know that I am the Lord your God, who has freed you from the burdens of the Egyptians. <sup>8</sup> I will bring you into the land that I swore to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; I will give it to you for a possession. I am the Lord.’”

PT: Word of God, word of life.

C: Thanks be to God.

APOSTLES CREED

PT: Let us confess our faith together with the words of the Apostles Creed.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ,
God's only Son our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

PT: With the whole people of God in Christ Jesus, let us pray for the church, those in need, and all of God's creation. Each portion of the prayers ends with these words:

Lord in your mercy, ..... “Hear our prayer”

O God, you made us in your own image and redeemed us through Jesus your Son. Look with compassion on the whole human family; take away the arrogance and hatred that infect our hearts; break down the walls that separate us; unite us in bonds of love; and, through our struggle and confusion, work to accomplish your purposes on earth; so that, in your good time, every people and nation may serve you in harmony around your heavenly throne. Lord in your mercy,

Out of the darkness we cry to you, O God. Enable us to find in Christ the faith to trust your care even in the midst of pain. Assure us that we do not walk alone through the valley of the shadow, but that your light is leading us into life. Lord in your mercy,

C: ...hear our prayer

O God, where hearts are fearful and constricted, grant courage and hope. Where anxiety is infectious and widening, grant peace and reassurance. Where impossibilities close every door and window, grant imagination and resistance. Where distrust twists our thinking, grant healing and illumination. Where spirits are daunted and weakened, grant soaring wings and strengthened dreams. Lord in your mercy,
